FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17.

THE TRANSFER OF JEFFERSON AND BERK LEY COUNTIES TO WEST VIRGINIA. - The ediior of the Spirit of Jefferson, published at Charlestown, has seen a copy of the bill in chancery which B. R. Curtis, Esq., of Massachusetts, formerly an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, has prepared for the purpose of testing the validity of the transfer of the counties of Jefferson and Berkeley to the State of West Virginia. The two main points urged in the bill are: First, that the act of the Virginia Legislature preliminary to the transfer, requiring an election to be held for the purpose of ascertaining the sease of the voters of the counties, was not complied with, inasmuch as the election was not held at a time when it could be "fairly and properly held," and as polls were not opened at "each of the election precincts" in the counties, as required by the act; secondly, that at the time of the passage of the repealing act of the Virginia Legislature, in December last, there was no valid, subsisting contract between the two States, and therefore the Legislature had the legal right to repeal-which being done, Congress had no constitutional power to pass its act of consent to the transfer.
